

Privatization: The Legal Implications of Shifting Boundaries between Public and Private

Speakers

The Hon. Jerry Brown is Mayor of Oakland and former Governor of California.

Barbara S. Blinderman, Moskowitz, Brestoff, Winston and Blinderman, Los Angeles, is a member of the Board of Directors of the California First Amendment Coalition.

Alan Brownstein is Professor of Law at UC Davis's King Hall School of Law, and author of "Constitutional Questions About Charitable Choice in Welfare Reform and Faith-Based Organizations."

Jesse H. Choper, Earl Warren Professor of Public Law at UC Berkeley's Boalt Hall School., is a nationally recognized authority on the constitution's Religion Clauses, and the author of Securing Religious Liberty: Principles for Judicial Interpretation of the Religion Clauses.

Phillip Cronin is County Counsel, Fresno, California .

Sheila Suess Kennedy, Professor of Law and Public Policy, University of Indiana, is former Corporation Counsel, City of Indianapolis and the author of To Market, To Market: Reinventing Indianapolis and "When is Public Private? The State Action Doctrine in the Era of Privatization and Public-Private Partnerships".

Evan McKenzie is Professor of Political Science, University of Illinois, and the author of Privatopia: Homeowner Associations and the Rise of Residential Private Government.

Jayne Williams, Meyers, Nave, Riback, & Wilson, San Leandro, California, is City Attorney for Suisun City, former City Attorney for Oakland, past President of the League of California Cities City Attorneys Department, and 2001 Public Lawyer of the Year.