

Privatization: The Legal Implications of Shifting Boundaries between Public and Private

Program Materials and Recommended Reading

Morning Session (Public Functions, Religious Groups, and the First Amendment)

"Privatization and Prayer: The Case of Charitable Choice." by Sheila Suess Kennedy (posted with the permission of the author pending publication; do not cite or copy).

Afternoon Session (Government, Inc: When Private Organizations do the Business of Government)

"Accountability: The Achilles Heel," in To Market, To Market: Reinventing Indianapolis, by Sheila Suess Kennedy.

"When Is Private Public? State Action in the Era of Privatization and Public-Private Partnerships." by Sheila Suess Kennedy. George Mason L. Rev. (2001).

"Privatization and the Public Good: a View from the Peanut Gallery." by Barbara S. Blinderman

"Homeowner Associations and California Politics: an Exploratory Analysis." by Evan McKenzie Urban Affairs Review (Sept 1998 v34 n1 p52(24)).